From the New-York Courier.

Parties in the United States were originally designated by the names of federal and anti federal. Afterwards, and upon the arrival of Citizen Genet democratic societies were instituted, and then the opposers of the federal constitution became, and universally denominated themselves democrats. But the great father of his country, soon afterwards, reprobated these Pandemonia: and the Plenipo's societies disappeared, as suddenly after this denunciation as the serpents into which the Egyptian rods were changed, when they were swallowed up by Aaron's rod. The discontented, turbulent, and avaricious spirits which composed the American jacobin clubs, altho' they slunk ignominiously from the light, detested and abhorred, contrived, especially in this city, to worm themselves into the Tammany Society, and to make that the instrument of those designs, the accomplishment of which could no longer be hoped while they were embodied under a name so execrated as that of Democratic Society. In fact, the Society and the Name were abandoned with equal alacrity! and then the opposers of the federal constitution, the adherents of Genet and of the French jacobin anarchy and the enemies of Washington, became suddenly, "Republicans!" In defiance of law and the national prosperity, they strove to plunge us into the vortex of the French revolutionary insanity: but they were nevertheless republicans. They promoted armaments in the U. States in spite of law and the President's proclamation: but they were nevertheless republicans. They raised an insurrection against the established authority in Pennsylvania, and even Mr. Gallatin gave his name to sanction the seditious and insurgent proceedings: but they were nevertheless republicans. While every honest and grateful heart poured forth the tribute of its confidence and of its gratitude upon Washington, they traduced his fame, fostered his slanderers, embarrassed his administration and strove "to bring his grey hairs in sorrow down to the grave!" They were, nevertheless, exclusive republicans! Was it proposed to make provision for the payment of that debt, which was incurred to establish our national independence, and our republican government, they opposed it with mathematical fury: they were nevertheless the best of whigs, and the only republicans.

Was it proposed to establish a National Bank, in aid of the financial operations of the infant government? A great terrific, made the country shudder from Maine to Georgia. Was a treaty settling all difficulties with Britain, gaining at once restitution of the withheld posts, and remuneration for spoliations proposed, there was wailing and weeping and gnashing of teeth, throughout the land. Were the robbery of the French Directory to be resisted, suppressed and punished, their lamentations were without bounds, and their curses not only deep, but loud and incessant. Was a loan of 4 millions, at an interest of 8 per cent demanded, they sung dirges to liberty and warningly prophesied the ruin of their beloved republic. Was it proposed to raise a few regiments to prepare us against any possible surprise, the dangers, the terrors, the abomination of a standing army, mounting the wind, howled in every blast, and filled every republican breast with apprehension, with awe, and with despair. Was it proposed to build a few frigates for the present exigency, and as the germ of a future navy, they were seen writhing in the spasms of Hydrophobia, cursing the great beast with the great belly. Were a few light taxes imposed, their bowels yearned in sympathy with "the Mouth of Labor." And the Stamp Act—ye Gods, and little fishes! Oh Hunca Munca, Hunca Munca oh! There they beheld British tyranny and oppression, the very cloven foot of the demon of despotism, plain, palpable, and abhorrent to the sight.

Every Republican tongue was struck against the empty bell in which it hung. The spouter mounted his stump in the south and in the west, or uttered vociferating indignation and despair from tavern to tavern. In the north, town meetings met in sorrow and mourning, and a few calculating apostates foreseeing the progress of the insanity, joined in the tragic farce. The press groaned with the ravings of the patriots. Thus reading and hearing so much the nation became overwhelmed with dismay—the ideot raised his swoln fingers and staring eyes to the moon; the half informed peasant yielded to the incessant noise and uproar; the mechanic forgot to labor, and flew to save his country. The great political necromancers meanwhile laughed in full chorus, and with fiend like joy, at the success of their sorceries, and then mounted into power, amid the exultations of folly and the cheers of enthusiasm and insanity.

In these few lines we have such a sketch of American Jacobinism, during the first twelve years of its existence, and while out of power, that we know it will strike friend and foe alike. In our next, if health permits us, we shall draw an equally rapid but brief sketch of this same Jacobinism in power. After which we shall enter upon the main subject to which this article is preparatory.

The farmers of this country will be surprised at the following statement of the produce of the dairies of [illegible]. The provinces included in the statement are not together so extensive as the state of Connecticut, yet besides the produce here mentioned, nearly suffices a greater population than almost any other tract of country, of the same extent in the world. Might not our agriculturists take some useful hints from the Dutch? This statement is from a English paper and was drawn up about a year ago.

North and South Holland, Groningen & Utrecht make together, 140 millions of pounds of Cheese annually, of which their own consumption, is not more than seven millions or one twentieth part; this large quantity, estimated at its average price, produces them about 1,800,000l. or nearly 2 millions sterling per annum.

The value of the butter they manufacture is full 24 millions of Guilders, or about 2 millions more, of which their own consumption is about one tenth part, all their surplus they sell about 1,800,000l annually; These to other rich provinces of so small territory and extent, are a produce, manufacture and exportation, of about 43 millions of Guilders, or nearly 3½ millions sterling per annum, for butter and cheese only; at some times in the last thirty years, these simple productions of the soil have sold for nearly double, or almost 7 millions!!

Down to the year 1780, the four kinds of Dutch cheese sold at 25s to 30s, for 100 lb less; and on a war with England declined in value full 8s per 100 lb. till the exportation by neutral flags revived and increased its price; from 1781 to 1800, the value of Dutch cheese continued to increase, until in 1815, it reached for the coarser sorts of Goude and North Holland, 40s to 53s per 100 lb and Friesland Butter nearly 90s to 94lb. all calculated at 12 Guilders for 94 lb. all calculated at 12 Guilders for the pound sterling. A prohibition of exportation at one time reduced the price of cheese to 20s and of Butter to 40s per 100 and 94 lb. such is with them, the immediate effect of a prohibition of export. With a freedom of export the price of North Holland cheese has been about 84s. Gouda cheese 80s and Friesland, the sort usually exported to England about 44s to 50s per 100 lb.

The produce of North Holland cheese alone, from May to Christmas, is about 8,000 lb or 1000l to 1,200l sterling per day: of Gouda not less: of Friesland butter; about 4,000 vierzes of 94 lb each per week, about 900,000l. per annum. In November 1815, North Holland cheese was at 31s 6d to 35s per 100 lb. Gouda 56s do. Leyden 25s to 27s do, Friesland cheese 14s to 16s do: Delft 80s for 90lb. Leyden do. 78s do. Friesland do 71s to 74s do,

ALEXANDRIA.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 29.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

January 28.

Yesterday's proceedings were prolific of talk and barren of interest. The Resolution empowering the President to employ Colonel Trumbull to paint four large pictures commemorative of so many important events in the Revolution, was as studiously opposed by the save-alls, as if it were a tribute of many millions. However the credit of the house was in some sort redeemed by the largeness of the majority which voted in favor of the Resolution. In order that the sovereigns out of doors might know and hear who defended the rights of their purse-strings, and who made this tremendous inroad on their cash, by voting for these pictures of a native artist, the question was taken by yeas and nays, when there were 114 yeas to 50 nays.

The bill for preventing piracy and the sale of vessels of war, was brought forward afterwards. Mr. Barbour moved an amendment excluding the operation of the bill from extending to foreigners, to whom the American owners may sell the vessels—this was carried by 94 to 37—and may be considered as, to a great extent, defeating the purpose of the bill. Why should gallant pirates be prevented from exercising their calling, any more than any other honest, patriotic gentlemen. "It is my vocation, Hal, (says the virtuous Falstaff) 'tis no sin for a man to labor in his vocation."

The following translation of a beautiful extract from Chataubriand's "Genie du Christianisme," is respectfully presented to the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette for publication by, a SUBSCRIBER.

SPECTACLE OF A BEAUTIFUL NIGHT.

In the Deserts of the New World.

An hour after sun set the moon appeared above the trees in the opposite horizon. A balmy breeze which she brought with her from the east, seemed to go before as her refreshing breath in the forest. The Queen of night ascends gradually in the heavens: now she follows silently her azure course,—now reposes on piles of clouds, resembling the summits of lofty mountains crowned with snow. These gradually unfurling themselves were spread into zones of satin whiteness, and dispersed in their foamy flocks, or formed in the heavens resplendent banks so pleasant to the eye as almost to induce a persuasion that one could feel their softness and elasticity.

On earth the scene was not less ravishing: the soft and silver light of the moon descended among the foliage, and projected streams of light into the profoundest shades. The river which flowed at my feet, by turns lost itself in the woods, and, by turns reappeared, all brilliant with the constellations of night which were multiplied on its undulating bosom. In a vastly extended prairie on the other side of the river, the light of the moon slept motionless on the green. Birch trees scattered here and there through the marsh, and agitated by the breeze formed islands of shadows, floating on a motionless sea of light. Around me all was silence and repose, save the dropping of the leaves, the brisk transit of sudden flaws of wind and the occasional hooting of the bird of night; but afar off was heard, the rolling, solemn sound of the cataract of Niagara, which in the stillness of night reverberated from desert to desert, until it ultimately expired in the distant solitary wild.

The grandeur and stupendous solemnity of this scene are altogether inexpressible. The most beautiful nights in Europe can convey no adequate idea of them. In vain in our cultivated fields does the imagination seek to expand itself, it encounters on every side the habitations of man; but in this country of deserts, the mind delights to plunge into an ocean of forests, to wander on the borders of boundless lakes, to hover over the gulphs of cataracts, and, if it may be utterd, to stand alone in the presence of the deity.

A bill is laid before the house of representatives, to prohibit all intercourse with ports where the U. S. are not permitted to enter and trade.

The 1st section provides, that after the 30th of June next, no vessel belonging to, or coming from, any port or place where the vessels of the U. S. are not permitted to enter and trade, shall be permitted to enter our ports (government vessels and vessels forced in by distress excepted) under the penalty of forfeiture of the vessel and cargo. The 2d section provides, that no foreign vessel shall be allowed to depart from the U. S. to any of the ports aforesaid after the term above mentioned, till the owner, master or consignee, shall give bond in double the value of the vessel and cargo, that the vessel shall proceed to the place where she may belong where the vessels of the U. S. are permitted to enter and trade: this bond is to be kept by the collector, and the certificate of the American consul abroad, or if there is none, of two respectable merchants, that the condition has been fulfilled, shall discharge the parties. The 3d section provides, that any foreign vessel after the time aforesaid, attempting to depart without complying with the terms of this bill, shall be forfeited, together with her cargo. These are the outlines of the bill.—Fed. Rep.

By a letter from Trenton (N. J.) we learn that Mahlon Dickerson, Esq. at present Governor of that state, was on the 23d inst in joint meeting of the Legislature, unanimously elected a Senator of the United States, for six years from the 4th of March, 1817.

The following account of the adventure of the U. States troops, who sailed from Long wharf in Boston for Fort Independence on Saturday evening, is copied from the Exchange Coffee House Books.

One hundred and sixty three men, officers and privates, sailed in two small schooners and a sloop for Fort Independence. The two scurs, reached the island and landed those on board of them in safety. The sloop came to anchor off the N. W. part of the Island, and boats were sent from thence to her relief; they succeeded in conveying 56 of those on board the sloop to the fort, but having parted her cables she was obliged to put to sea, and we are happy to add, reached Hull in safety. Of the 7 left on board, 46 have returned over land to Weymouth; one left on the road in consequence of having received some injury.

New York, Jan. 25.

LATEST FROM CADIZ.

By the arrival yesterday of the ship William, capt. Smith, in 38 days from Cadiz, we learn verbally, that, when capt. S. sailed, a Spanish force of 10,000 men, under General O'Donnald, were assembled at St. Marys waiting for transports, to embark for South America, to proceed against the patriots. They had detained all the British vessels in Cadiz and the adjacent ports for that purpose.

A Spanish frigate of 44 guns, as convoy to a number of merchantmen, was preparing to leave Cadiz, for Vera Cruz, Havana, and other Spanish ports, and would be ready to sail in a few days.

Several Buenos Ayres privateers were cruising off Cadiz and Malaga. They had made great havock among the Spanish homeward bound merchantmen having captured about 20 sail during the month of November.

Notice.

The public are hereby informed that a Company has been formed under the title of THE QUANTICO WAREHOUSE COMPANY, who have erected, one mile below the town of Dumfries, a large and convenient Warehouse on Quantico creek for the storage of flour, grain, etc. which warehouse will be ready for the reception of produce on Monday the third of Feb. next. The trustees of said Company have appointed Zebulon Kerkey their Agent, to attend the said Warehouse, to receive produce on storage and grant receipts for the same. And for the prompt delivery of all articles received in the said warehouse by their agent, (fire alone excepted) the Company hold themselves bound. All persons depositing flour, grain, etc must pay, before taken away, the following storage, viz. For each barrel of flour 6 cents; if it remains in said warehouse one month 8 cents; and in the same proportion for the time it may remain. For each bushel of wheat or other grain two cents; if it remains over one month three cents; and in the same proportion for the time it may remain. And for all articles of merchandise a reasonable storage only will be demanded. Persons storing flour may have it inspected, or not, at their option. If not inspected, the agent's receipt will specify the brand and the state of the barrels. The weight of one bushel wheat, running measure, each load or parcel of wheat. All articles stored, the same to be returned to the owner when called for, be it flour wheat, other grain, etc. Customary allowances for wastage, &c excepted.

The Quantico Warehouse is situated on Quantico Creek only two miles from its junction with the Potomac river, a all times navigable for lighters. There are belonging to this creek a sufficient number of lighters to ensure a brisk transportation down the creek of all articles stored. Vessels may be got to take produce to the district of Columbia, Baltimore, Norfolk, or elsewhere. The present freights are—To the district twelve and half cents per barrel of flour, and to Baltimore and Norfolk 25 cents from the mouth of Quantico. The proximity of this warehouse to a large extent of country, added to the goodness of the roads leading to it from the westward, being little inferior to paved ones. It being found by actual survey little more than 25 miles from Hay Market to Dumfries, will, it is confidently believed by the trustees, by this rout greatly lessen the expense of transportation of produce even to the district of Columbia, and they pledge themselves to the public to use every means within their power to give satisfaction.

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

BOOKSELLERS, KING STREET,

Have just received from LEE'S PATENT MEDICINE Store. No. 46 Maiden Lane, N. York.

A FRESH SUPPLY

Of the following genuine Medicines.

For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, recommended

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which is so often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold it taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness of the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or foulness in their stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and perfectly innocent, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Teres, or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tænia, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face coated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent 'the vomiting and purging of chint'—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys the hands of the unfavourable part of our citizens it likewise to mildest and most se[illegible]

[illegible]emedy known, and has restored [illegible]alth and strength a great numbe[illegible] in an advanced stage of this fa[illegible] complaint. Particular and plain instru[illegible]ons are given for every part of the ne[illegible]ssary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine [illegible]ith eagerness; having a pleasing appear[illegible]ce, and an agreeable taste.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable [illegible]roughout Europe, is an invaluable cos[illegible]etic, perfectly innocent and safe, free [illegible]rom corrosive and repellant minerals. the basis of other lotions) and of un[illegible]arralled efficacy in removing blemishes [illegible] the face and skin, freckles, pimples [illegible]flamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding the natural, insensible perspiration, which is essential to health, yet its effects are speedy and permanent, rendering the skin delicately soft and smooth and improving the complexion.

The Restorative Powder for the teeth and Gums.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness, which suffered to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints resulting from dissipated pleasures, juvenile indiscretions, residence in climates unfavourable to the constitution, the immoderate use of tea, frequent inoxications or any other destructive intemperance—the unskilful or excessive use of mercury, the diseases peculiar to females at a certain period of life, bad lyings in, &c
